

THE SMELL OF 1% DC CRAPWEASELS - POETIC JUSTICE REVEALED

Hey Corporate American H-1B Crapweasels

Yeah you,

Do you know who you are?

I do not have to look far,

Hey pig piggy pig pig pig,

All of my fears have come true.

My little pig needed something new,
Cheap H1-B and corruption to chew,
Nothing can stop you now,
You don't care anymore,
Nothing can stop you now,
You are feeding at the H-1B money trough.

Step right up and feed and push,
Crawl right up on your knees,
Please swallow the green greed,
Even gobble the cheap weeds,
You are screwing the IT Workers of America!

You like the look of it,
You like the taste of it,
You like the smell of it,
Alas you love you eat it!
All the Crapweasels are all lined up,
They will get what they want,
Money, all or it,

Screw the IT Workers of America!

Take the skin and peel it back,

Now doesn't that make you feel better?

Shove it up inside surprise! Such Lies!

They stain like the blood on your teeth,

You bite chew suck away the tender parts,

Oh the money tastes like honey,

For Crapweasels like you love to Screw the IT Workers of America!

The 1% Crapweasels continues to Smell,

The Stench of the Corporate American H1-B Crapweasels,

Now doesn't that make you feel better?

The Crapweasels have won today,

They have the Republican and Democrat Crapweasels on their side,

Now they can all sleep soundly.

And everything will be all right or maybe the Crapweasel will be flushed?

Kindness to Trent Reznor on this matter.
